I bought here because of the station.
I can hear birds singing in the morning, lots of trees.
I do not think Barnham has anything attractive about it!
I like having a local pub, memorial and sports

I very much like the gaps between our villages.
Immediate surroundings and views of the Downs.
In Eastergate its ruralness still a country village.
Individual character of each village
Individual villages.
It is quiet also knowing local people has a village feel.
It still feels like living in a rural village its difficult to say as the traffic problems cloud our viewpoint
Its nice to look out your window onto open fields
Its the whole package. Village/rural community with many of the facilities of a small town.
Lack of cohesive plan to ensure village centre is attractive.
Largely fields down Church Lane.
Listed buildings.
Litter, overgrown domestic hedges. Weed ? pavements.
Little social housing.
